

Financial Planning

Shane Sienaert brings a dynamic approach to wealth management and financial planning at the Spruce. With approximately 10 years of experience in the investment industry you can count on Shane to provide accurate financial advice to help obtain your goals – whatever they may be.

Before joining the Spruce Credit Union team Shane gained his industry experience working in brokerage services; private wealth management; banking and asset management. His formal education achievements include Certified Financial Planner and Wealth Consultant.

Whether its retirement and tax planning or estate and insurance planning Shane can help you. As a client of Shane's you can expect a personalized financial plan; a clear strategy to achieve your goals and a long term commitment to see your plan thru.

Born and raised in Prince George, Shane is happy to return to his roots and family and understands the uniqueness that is Northern British Columbia. In his time away from work you can find Shane on the golf course, fishing or traveling.

Whether you are a Credit Union member or not Shane would love to meet with you to discuss your investment or insurance needs.
